

John David Van Hove

310 Oak St. Suite 4, PMB#102
Ashland, Oregon 97520
Phone (800) 304-7507
Email: jdvh@icresource.com

OBJECTIVE: To offer my services as an independent business development, project management, communications and/or marketing director for an upstart company with huge growth potential.

QUALIFICATIONS

Evaluation and strategic planning for core markets and profit-centers, business, operational and marketing plans, project planning and development, sales and marketing, business management and consulting, new paradigm business development, corporate formation and recordkeeping, negotiating legal contracts, deal-making, public speaking and promotions, training and education, producing special events, coordinating graphic design, web development, audio and video production, authoring content, coordinating capitalization and financing.

EDUCATION

1967-1970 GED and Independent Study, Warren High School

1970-1973 School of Living and Entrepreneurship, Michigan State University

SELF-EMPLOYMENT

1962-1973 Various Early Jobs

Learned work ethic, hauled dirt and laid sod, babysat and hired as stock-boy at grocery store, janitor and selling Grand 'Ol Opry tickets, driving truck and applying lawn fertilizer and pesticides.

1974-1988 Musical, Performing and Artistic Career

Singer, songwriter and composer, performing artist and musician, publishing first poetry magazine "Transience," organizing arts community "Guild of Alternative Artists," producing and promoting music coffeehouse "Compared to What," featured in book about street music "Passing the Hat," produced and recorded "Fresh Wave" album of original music.

1975-1980 Community Organizing, Networking and Event Production

Established first of twelve community resource centers "Guild Communications Center," produced health and wellness events and seminars, networked people, projects, programs, media and organizations, published "Conscious Networking" newsletter, organized and produced first "Detroit Symposium on Humanity," ad hoc coordinator for first interactive video conference "World Symposium on Humanity."

1973-1992 Carpentry and Building Work

Carpenter and cabinet-builder, machine building and waterbed manufacturing, hanging security wood and metal doors, retrofitting integral urban household as alternative energy demonstration project, owned and operated general construction contracting company, built seven residences and hundreds of remodels, build an award-winning house in San Francisco featured on the cover of "Sunset" magazine.

1982-2005 Communications and Computers

Published the seminal "Power & Significance of Communications Networking," envisioned the Institute for Communications Resources, began computing with first Macintosh 128K and learned software programs for personal and business use, launched first website, co-designed, maintained and hosted various websites (CRC, ICR, WGNS, LIF).

1985-1991 Transformational Theatre, Seminar and Concert Production

Co-produced the "Sage Experience" transformational theatre, produced fourteen show "Rainbow Road Show" tour, produced and organized community events "Environmental Teen and Children's Camp" and "Solar Music Festival," established "Networking Training Program," produced "Harmonic Convergence" events with Ken Carey.

1989-1991 Environmental Education Program Director and Resource Center

Co-founded "Lost Valley Center" environmental education center, founded resource center "Cascadian Resource Center" in Northwest, established and co-designed "Cascadia Hour" bioregional currency.

1995-2005 Organizer and Business Manager, Cascadian Resource Center.

Coordinated all aspects of trust formation, management and implementation of a resource center for the Northwest, established a website, sold books and presented seminars in the areas of sovereignty, citizenship and economics, published "Access: Resource Directory."

1995-2005 Organizer and Business Manager, Light-Radiance Productions.

Coordinated all aspects of trust formation and production of audio seminars and events in the Northwest and internationally. Organized summer events and gatherings at Riversong Farm; creative director for "Summer Solstice Healing Retreats" at Breitenbush.

1992-2005 Self-Publishing and Audio Production, Entrepreneurship

Book and seminar sales and marketing, authored best-selling (40,000 copies) "Global Sovereign's Handbook," developed successful self-publishing business model, lectured on American history, law and economics across USA (100,000 participants), authored and produced best-selling "Global One" audio course (75,000 copies), consulted for "Global Prosperity Group" associates (5,000 participants), gave keynote speeches and seminars for Elizabeth Broderick Seminars (3,000 participants), educated millions globally on personal sovereignty through keynote speeches internationally (20,000 participants).

1999-2005 Business and Resource Center Development

Established IBC's, ILL trusts and common law trusts for legitimate business purposes (300 companies formed) along with recordkeeping systems, founded and directed international companies (AH, LIF, ICR), advocated free enterprise, tax-reduction strategies, personal sovereignty and strategic withdrawal, established multi-jurisdictional structuring strategies for international and domestic business development, founded twelve resource centers internationally for project and business development.

2001-2005 Educational and Training Programs, Film Production

Produced, edited and marketed "Success Education" audio course, developed and instructed in "Liberty Law School" and "Leadership Training Program," produced film "Lotus: A Women's Journey of Empowerment" and "The Taboo of Sovereignty, Money, Love and Power," interviewed for the film "$-The Movie," authored business plan for "Waking Giant News Service,

1978-2005 Founder and CEO, Institute for Communications Resources

Began with a vision of the power and significance of communications networking, ICR was founded to establish resource centers internationally. First incorporated in the Bahamas, then in Panama. Twelve established worldwide.

1999-2005 Founder and CEO, Abundant Holdings

Founded to create capitalization for project and business development internationally. First incorporated in the Bahamas, then Panama. Raised capital and tendered business plans.

2002-2005 Founder and General Manager, Liberty International

A foundation established internationally to further the cause of liberty and justice. Organized in Panama. Authored a fundraising plan and strategy.

- 2007 Marketing Director and Business Development, Pacific Domes
Utilizing business development, management and marketing skills to build this upstart company, negotiate dealer and distribution contracts and expand into international markets, implement project and contact management systems, oversee deployment of new website, office systems and company blog, author marketing plan, oversee new facility development and contracting.
- 2008 Marketing Director and Project Management, Global Business Development Services
Project managing business developments for start-ups, entrepreneurs and enterprises. Business and marketing plans. Web design, development and deployment.

REFERENCES

Available Upon Request